“Just Go There”

Last week I wrote at the top of my daily prayers: “Don’t look at the trees. Look at Jesus.” The idea came from my ski instructor of years’ past, Doug Smith: “Ski the gaps, not the trees,” Doug said, “You hit what you look at!”

His words are still changing my life. They help me understand what Paul meant centuries ago when he said, “Let’s run with perseverance the race set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame.”

(Hebrews 12:1-2) And last week, I was looking at the trees of life and getting scared. It was time to refocus on the one who knows, who IS my way through!

Skiing always has something to teach me about life.

Last year, Smith had another lesson: “Just go there,” he said. “Move your upper body into the next turn before your skis; trust they’ll come around.” I didn’t get it. I kept muscling my turns.

But in this January’s powder, it happened: I lifted and turned eyes, shoulders, and hips ahead of my feet and skis, and light, flowing turns carried me through the gaps between the trees. I trusted hill, snow, and skis, and “just went there” for the very first time. Oh, it was FUN!!!

When I’m afraid of falling, of missing a turn, catching an edge, hitting a tree, or getting tired, I can’t “just go there.” But when mind and body move beyond (reasonable!) fear into trust and “just go there,” flow happens.

Back to Jesus: When we keep our eyes on Jesus, who had his eyes on the way of God and courage to “just go there” between really thick trees—even right through the tree of the cross—our spirits rise with him into our turns. We may only keep it up for a minute or two, but the flow of those moments is FUN!

So, recognize your forest: Are you forcing your way through life? Money, illness, kids or parents, personality conflicts, addiction, violence, death, taxes all cause us to tighten up and muscle our turns. We’ll have to deal with them, for sure—at home, church, work, wherever!—but if we focus on them, they drag us down.

Know your forest, but “don’t look at the trees, look at Jesus.” What helps you keep your eyes on Jesus when fear hits? What helps your spirit rise into the turns and “just go there” even before the rest of your life comes around? (Continued on next page)

Faith Lutheran Church is a family of God built on love: Worshiping, welcoming, and serving in Christ’s name.

Whatever it is, find time for it! Enjoy a daily devotional pause, regular time with Bible Study, spiritual friends, mountain trails or great downhill runs, weekly worship, soul-filling music, or visiting with “ski buddies” at church.

The trees are thick on my ski hill of life; I expect they’re thick on yours, too. AND Jesus is our Way through the gaps. Dear Friends, may you find your souls trusting, rising, and turning to him and the rest of your life coming ‘round like magic!

Celebrate New Friends! (*not joining at this time)

Many of these folks joined Faith Lutheran officially on January 10 & 17. If you see a face that’s new to you, please introduce yourself! There are some terrific new people in God’s family at Faith.

Shawn and Amy Boelman, Amanda and Bennett moved down from Kalispell just about a year ago, and have been pretty busy buying and remodeling their home up Willow Creek Road (on Moss Rock Ct.) east of Corvallis. Shawn works for the Forest Service as a facilities engineer, and Amy gets to hold down the fort at home and enjoy volunteering at the Corvallis schools. Amanda’s a dancer—keep an eye out for her at Ballet Bitterroot; Bennett’s into sports; and they both love their turtle and their collection of sheep and farm critters. They’ve enjoyed the warm welcome at Faith, and that worship and messages connect with real life.

Suzie Deibert and her husband Jerry (who enjoys worshipping in the great outdoors), moved to Corvallis last year. Jerry is retired from wildlife biology with the Forest Service in Missoula, and Suzie’s done a little bit of lots of things, including sub teaching and running the gift shop at the Community Hospital of Missoula. Suzie’s transferring from Atonement in Missoula, and has already gotten her hands “dirty” baking communion bread and organizing other bakers. Give her a ring to volunteer!

Dean and Sandy Drake were just a little too new to join officially last year. Residents of Stevensville, they’ve been in and out of this area since the 1970’s. Dean’s recently retired from Boeing, where he loved working as an engineer in systems integration, and Sandy’s retired from office work. For a great conversation, ask them about Dean’s motorcycle, chess, goats, yard sales, or camping and fishing. Sandy’s also a GREAT cook, and Dean’s been helping out our council with goal setting and priorities.

Cedar Mitchell comes to us thanks to a post-baccalaureate position at RML, where she's delighted to be studying the transmission of Plague (yup—Black, Bubonic...that one!) across its life-cycles. Cedar was a counselor at Rainbow Trail Lutheran Camp in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains of southern Colorado, has been a ski instructor, and is just plain cool. She has loved the homey feel of Faith and thanks Ron and Nancy for sharing their holidays with her!

Sally Porter moved this summer from Havre to her new home in Stonegate to be near her son here (Chris works at River Rising, BTW) and daughter in Missoula. She's missing the folks in Havre—and I'm sure they're missing her in the bell and vocal choirs! Sally's a retired teacher (English and Spanish), who's connecting at Faith with the Love Day Quilters and the monthly Spiritual Reading Group.

Hal and Laura Reichart, Grace and Kenny have lived in Hamilton since opening Bella Valle (the Italian restaurant behind the police station) in 2011, which explains Laura's amazing Tiramisu! Hal's handy at lots of things, but he's currently servicing airplanes and helicopters at our local airport, while Laura turns the power on and off and keeps customers happy at Ravalli Electric. Grace and Kenny love the Corvallis schools where they're in eighth and seventh grades respectively. Look for this family out celebrating their Celtic (Laura!) and German heritage or hunting, camping, playing softball or baseball. They like the structure and community at Faith. Don't tell anybody, but Laura says even the kids like going to church! ☺

Stuart (Stu) and Bonnie Savory arrived in Montana in May and settled into their townhouse on Lone Pine Trail on October 1, so they're nearly as new to the area as it gets! They lived in Grand Island, New York, just about forever before that, where St. Timothy's Lutheran Church was a big part of their lives. Bonnie directed their preschool, and Stu helped out with property and maintenance, among other things. They're looking forward to making new friends here at Faith, and continuing down the long path toward God they've enjoyed since marrying in 1965 (that makes 50 years last July!).

Other newer attendees include Crystal Beckman and her husband Josh of Stevi, Stacy Weber, Christina Polacci and her partner Sandy Sellers. Like I say, if you see a face new to you, introduce yourself! Need a conversation starter? "How long have you attended her?" and "Where did you live before here?" work pretty well. Enjoy!

The Story of the Four Chaplains

The Four Chaplains, also referred to as the “Immortal Chaplains” or the “Dorchester Chaplains” were four United States Army Chaplains who gave their lives to save civilian and military personnel as the troop ship USAT Dorchester sank on February 3, 1943, during World War II. The vessel was torpedoed during the early morning hours of February 3rd by a German submarine off the coast of Newfoundland in the North Atlantic. The chaplains all held the rank of first lieutenant, and included a Method minister, a rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest, and a Reformed Church in America minister. They gave up their lifejackets when the supply ran out, then joined arms, said prayers, and sang hymns as they went down with the ship. Some 230 of the 904 men aboard the ship were rescued.

Faith Lutheran remembers in Worship the Four Chaplains on or near February 3rd by the request of several of our members and veterans. Their courage and sacrifice show us the Spirit of the God they all served.

Please Come!!!

Feb. 10-Mar. 30, 2016 to...

animate: FAITH sessions are like a guided tour through the basics of Christian theology. The men and women presenters you'll meet offer their years of experience, their questions, their wonderings, and their experiences of traveling the often-bumpy road of faith. These sessions are being provided by Faith Lutheran Church, and partner congregations: Corvallis United Methodist, St. Paul's Episcopal, St. Francis' Catholic Parish, The United Methodist-American Baptist Federated Church.

Meet God and your neighbors!

Faith Lutheran Church stands strong upon a long history of Bible Study, learning, and home gatherings especially during the season of Lent.

animate: FAITH is a favorite study for ELCA congregations by a special group of presenters that considers the traditional teachings of our church in sessions that are both thought-provoking and fun to talk about. There's something to challenge the most mature believer and to welcome the newest seeker!

Session Format: DVD presentation followed by group conversation. Sundays will offer a small group experience with Pastor Brenda after worship—an ideal time for facilitators who'd like the prep. Wednesdays will be a light lunch followed by light conversation with our partner congregations. Home groups will stay as light or go as deep as the group is comfortable. Published journals (really cool!) may be purchased individually online, or enjoy simple resources provided by the church.

animate: SCHEDULE*Week of Feb. 7: GOD | BRIAN

“...Who exactly is this God we worship? Is God a mighty fortress, solid and unchanging? Is God a mystical, unknowable force that floats around us like a vapor? How can we speak of faith if we can’t even speak of God with any certainty? How can we chart a course through the often-murky waters of Christian tradition and find our way to God?”

Week of Feb. 14: RELIGION | LILLIAN

“What does it mean to be spiritual? Is it the same as being religious? ...Consider how the seeds of faith take root and thrive. What role does organized religion play in helping—or hindering—growth? In this age of religious pluralism, is it possible or even desirable to stick with our age-old traditions?”

Week of Feb. 21: JESUS | MARK

“What if our churches became places where we practiced being like Jesus? What if we were serious about joining in with Jesus’ revolution of love?” What if a Christian community functioned like a martial arts studio, a dojo—gathered to practice taking the kind of social and economic risks our master took, learning his values, his disciplines, his moves in the world?

Week of Feb. 28: SALVATION | SHANE

“...What, exactly, does it mean to be saved? From what? Is salvation a reward we claim at death or something meant to change our lives right now? For Shane Hipps, these are questions we need to answer...to truly receive the release that comes with salvation in the here and now.”

Week of March 6: CROSS | NADIA

“The cross stands at the center of our faith, yet our understanding of what exactly happened on that cross remains conflicted and confusing. Was Jesus our proxy? The payment? The only way to appease an angry God?” Could “our theories about the cross tell us as much about ourselves and our view of God as they do about Jesus and salvation”?

Week of March 13: BIBLE | LAUREN

“Why read the Bible? Why keep turning to the same stories in search of some new revelation? ...What gets in our way as we read the Bible and try to make sense of it? These are issues the Church has wrestled with for centuries, and yet we keep at it. We keep coming back to this book and its strange narrative full of plagues and miracles and destruction and rebirth. So why do we do it?”

Week of March 20/27: CHURCH | BRUCE

It’s old news that churches are like families. For Bruce Reyes-Chow, “it’s the messiness, the dysfunction, and the joy that comes from complex relationships that make Church worth hanging on to. So how do we stay connected to this sometimes broken family system? What does it mean to commit ourselves to the church family for better or for worse?”

Lenten Project for Lutheran World Relief

Again this year we will collect and assemble Personal Care Kits for Lutheran World Relief. Each kit consists of 5 items and each Sunday in Lent we will collect one of those items. Then on Sunday, April 3, we will assemble the kits, have a celebratory lunch and send the kits on their way. Last year we assembled 56 kits. Can we put together 75 kits this year?

- Feb. 14 Sturdy combs (no picks or fine-toothed combs)
- Feb. 21 Metal nail clippers
- Feb. 28 Light-weight bath size towels (20"x40" to 27"x52") dark color recommended
- March 6 Adult size toothbrushes in original packaging
- March 13 2-3 bath-size bars of soap totaling 8-9 ounces per kit

When all Personal Care Kits contain the same items, recipients are treated equally and fairly which is important. All items should be new.

If you have questions, please contact Nancy Osborn.

Kogodus Ministry Retreat

April 14-16

An opportunity to participate in a unique spiritual encounter takes place at the Rocky Boy Indian Reservation for an upcoming Kogodus Retreat. Linda Webster, pastor of Our Savior Luther Church is most enthusiastic about this event. The church is located on the reservation near Box Elder in north central Montana.

A few years ago Faith's congregation provided financial assistance for the operation of the Rocky Boy Church. Now we can show support with our presence at the retreat. Please visit John Trangmoe, a Kogodus board member, who has taken part in several past retreats or call Pastor Greg Karlsgodt at 406-544-1699. The Kogodus movement began in Montana forty years ago and has been attended by thousands of people.
