Re-Member Me

Once as a Buddhist monk walked the roads of China, he was challenged by a guard: “Who are you and where are you going?” he demanded. “How much would I have to pay you to follow me and ask that question daily?” replied the monk.

In large part, the world’s spiritual traditions exist to help humankind remember who we are and where we’re going in a world that spins toward chaos. Spiritual beliefs and practices give us a positive (we hope!) and power-filled foundation on which to build lives, families, and communities that are increasingly whole and good.

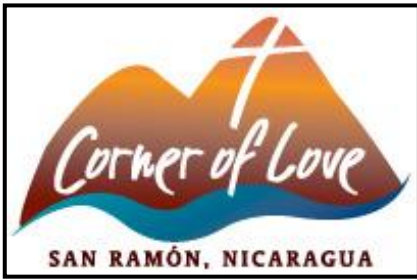

Long ago, a spirit-filled man named Ezekiel envisioned a valley filled with dry bones, the remains of some great and terrible battle. Our world is filled with such valleys—burial sites in every country contain the skeletons of violence. Even in our own homes, we hide “skeletons in our closets,” tucking personal and family secrets behind overcoats of shame.

So Ezekiel’s God—Jesus’ God, OUR God!—told him to, “Speak my words of life to these bones, words that DO what they SAY. Tell them to be re-membered: bone to bone, flesh to flesh, breath to breath.” And so it was. God’s power-filled word re-membered and gave life to the dry bones in Ezekiel’s valley of death, just as Jesus’ words and touch called dead people back to life and God’s hand raised Jesus himself from the grave.

Is it crazy to believe in a God who brings the dead to life? In this world of physics and biology and better(?) things to do, is it still worth precious time to remember the ancient words and works of God in weekly worship and daily reading? It’s worth it for me. Because time and again God puts back together my scattered and skeletal life. God re-members me in worship, in word, and in your welcome, Friends of Faith.

Dearest readers, I pray that you will remember the God who re-members you. I know it’s hard. Going to church does seem crazy in this sped-up, dis-connected, fact-obsessed world.

But it’s not. Keep comin’ back. Be re-membered here. ~ Pastor Brenda

May is Mission Month at Faith! Please Help Support...

Misión Christo Rey

June 22-29, 2014

In just a few weeks twelve of us from Faith and other Bitterroot churches will join folks from Georgia and Florida on Mission Christ the King (Christo Rey).

We'll offer four days of medical/dental clinics in the rural villages around San Ramón in the Matagalpa region of Nicaragua, distribute shoes for school-aged kids, and help with construction on Corner of Love's clinic and leadership school at La Lima River.

You Can Help!!!

Money is easiest and often most efficient: $10 buys a pair of sturdy black school shoes for a child in Nicaragua. $500 buys a med-pack full of medicines retailing for over $1500. Everything in-between helps. EITHER write a check to Faith Lutheran Church with "for Corner of Love" or "for Nicaragua Mission" in the memo line OR visit www.corneroflove.org to donate directly. If you'd like to help "scholarship" one of our missionaries, please speak to Pastor Brenda—our youngsters and their families would really appreciate it!

We're also taking donated supplies (* denotes priority items). Please drop the following items in the Nicaragua Mission collection box in the lobby at Faith:

- *hydrocortisone
- *Neosporin/triple antibiotic
- *Visine/eye drops
- *Ibuprofen (adult/child)
- *Infant/toddler meds
- *Children's cold/cough meds
- *Vitamins/multivitamins
- Anti-fungal sprays/cream
- Acetaminophen/Tylenol

Decide to Forgive

By Robert Muller

Decide to forgive,
For resentment is negative
Resentment is poisonous
Resentment diminishes
and devours the self.
Be the first to forgive,
To smile and take the first step
And you will see happiness bloom
On the face of your human brother or sister.
Be always the first,
Do not wait for others to forgive.
For by forgiving
You become the master of fate
The fashioner of life
A doer of miracles.
To forgive is the highest,
most beautiful form of love
In return you will receive untold peace and happiness.

Achieving a Truly Forgiving Heart

By Robert Muller

Sunday: Forgive yourself.
Monday: Forgive your family.
Tuesday: Forgive your friends and associates.
Wednesday: Forgive all across economic lines within your own nation.
Thursday: Forgive across cultural lines within your own nation.
Friday: Forgive across political lines within your own nation.
Saturday: Forgive other nations.

Only the brave know how to forgive. A coward never forgives.
It is not in his nature.

What IS Thrivent?

I've been asked this question recently by some of our church community so please realize this is an explanation and not a sales pitch. Thrivent came about when Aid Association for Lutherans and Lutheran Brotherhood joined together. Both sold insurance, annuities, and other financial products just to Lutherans making them fraternal organizations. The official name is Thrivent Financial for Lutherans but the membership is now open to all Christians and the members are the owners. Members are grouped into Chapters. Ravalli County is the name of our local chapter.

Thrivent's purpose is to serve its members and society by guiding both to be wise with money and to live generously. The underlying belief is that all we have is a gift from God and that generosity is an expression of faith. Thrivent succeeds when members, their families, and their communities thrive. In addition, Thrivent is considered one of the world's most ethical companies by the Ethisphere Institute.

As a fraternal organization, Thrivent is able to return some of the monies that would be paid in taxes to the membership to do good works (generosity) within our local and broader communities. Some of these dollars are in the form of Thrivent Choice Dollars that individual members allocate to organizations they want to support. Care Abounds in Communities monies are returned to the Chapter. Members and others can apply for these dollars from the Chapter Leadership Board to fund service projects and/or match dollars made through fund raising to help a person in need or a worthwhile cause. And most recently, Action Team monies have been made available. Each Thrivent member (over the age of 16) can plan a service project, form an Action Team, and apply for up to $250 to complete this project...and can do this twice a year.

So Thrivent is insurance and investments but it's also much more. If you have other questions, Clairice Brady and Linda Beyer are currently elected members of the Chapter Leadership Board and can answer most questions or you can check the website or call a Thrivent Financial Representative.

Thrivent Action Team $$$

Are you a Thrivent member who has an idea that could help others? That idea may be to build a handicap ramp, provide a community dinner, Christmas gift bags for shut-ins, care packages for military personnel overseas, clean up an elderly person's yard or repair something for them. The ideas are endless. Thrivent may provide you with as much as $250 to make this idea happen. You just need to formulate the plan, get a team of people together, and apply for the funds on line. It takes 2-3 weeks to receive the prepaid credit card and then you are ready to put the plan in action. You will need to follow-up with a short report on-line after the event. And, you can do this 2 times each year. Yup, it's free money to help others...you just supply the person power! (<https://www.thrivent.com/actionteam/>) ~ Linda Beyer

Money Matters at Faith

Thank you all for a lively springtime at Faith! All is well and growing... and it's time for a financial update:

Our expenses through the spring have slightly outpaced our income on what we knew would be a tight budget. As a result, Faith is behind expenses by just over $1,500.

For more information, check the financials posted in the Fellowship Hall. Thanks!

God's Masterpiece is Mother

By Herbert Farnham

God took the fragrance of a flower...

The majesty of a tree...

The gentleness of morning dew...

The calm of a quiet sea...

The beauty of the twilight hour...

The soul of a starry night...

The laughter of a rippling brook...

The grace of a bird in flight...

Then God fashioned from these things

A creation like no other,

And when his masterpiece was through

He called it simply – Mother.

Thank you to the wonderful FLC members that have allocated their Thrivent Choice Dollars to Faith Lutheran Church! The last donation amount was an amazing $6,237.00!

We greatly appreciate your generosity!

Memorial Day

By C.W. Johnson

We walked among the crosses
Where our fallen soldiers lay.

And listened to the bugle

As TAPS began to play.

The Chaplain led a prayer

We stood with heads bowed low.

And I thought of fallen comrades

I had known so long ago.

They came from every city

Across this fertile land.

That we might live in freedom.

They lie here 'neath the sand.

I felt a little guilty

My sacrifice was small.

I only lost a little time

But these men lost their all.

Now the services are over

For this Memorial Day.

To the names upon these crosses

I just want to say,

Thanks for what you've given

No one could ask for more.

May you rest with God in heaven

From now through evermore
