Further In with Every Turn: Re-Membering Christ’s Body TODAY

Our kids were darling, the music fun and even inspiring, the lights and greens and candles beautiful: the Christmas Program! And why is it that year after year we replay the scene, re-read the words? Why, year after year, do we go round the circle—The Coming, the Epiphany, the Lenten deepening, Holy Week’s drama, Easter’s joy, and the long stretch of “ordinary time” between the Spirit’s flood at Pentecost and Advent yet again.

Our Native American neighbors understand, actually. Their culture tells its stories again and again, too, and realizes that stories heard (and told) as children, adolescents, adults, and elders draw us in more deeply every time around and speak new questions, challenges, and hopes with every turn. In every telling, these stories sink us more deeply into the realities of God, ourselves, others, and our world.

So a note of thanks and praise to you, Friends of Faith: It’s growing easier and easier to leave our deep stories in the past. Yet your participation helps plant them in your kids. Your presence nurtures them in your own souls. And your presentation (and your kids’) of the stories of God with God’s people in worship and in your daily lives (loving, serving, praying, forgiving...) re-members, or re-embodies God’s presence among us now in profound and hugely relevant ways.

And an invitation: animate:Faith (page 6) is a 7-week small group conversation that invites us to consider our faith in some new and profound ways—while getting to know each other better! Make space for animate this February and March as a part of our Lenten “deepening” with God and others. If you’re able, offer your home as a gathering place—for one week or several. If you can’t make it to church, gather with friends when and where you CAN come together.

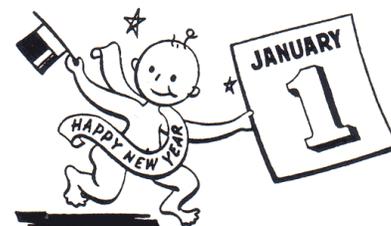

So that’s why the repetition, year after year: With every turn, every telling of “the story we find ourselves in”, you and I and those who accompany us grow more deeply real and true and whole. Thanks for coming along! Again.

Your Servant, ~Pastor Brenda

Helpful Hints for Good Relating: Assertiveness and Active Listening

Back in 2012, Reps from the Montana Synod of the ELCA (the regional group of which Faith is a part) offered some great communication tools to our congregation. Such helpful stuff deserves a repeat!

1) Assertiveness. “Assertiveness is the ability to express your feelings and ask for what you want in the relationship,” according to Prepare-Enrich couple counseling materials. Assertive communication...

- Takes responsibility for messages by using “I” statements
- Avoids statements beginning with “you”
- Makes constructive requests
- Is positive and respectful
- Uses polite phrases such as “please” and “thank you”
- Does not involve third parties in the relationship’s issues

While intentional assertiveness can seem “stiff” or “clumsy” at first, it helps communicators tone down emotions that can drown out our messages and prevent us from solving our actual problems.

2) Active Listening. “Active listening is the ability to let your partner know you understand them by restating their message.” (Prepare-Enrich) Active listening...

- Listens attentively without interrupting the speaker
- Restates what was heard
- Acknowledges both content AND feelings of the speaker
- Refrains from response until understanding is achieved

Active listening helps the speaker know he or she was clearly understood. It slows down conversations, and, like assertiveness, helps cool the emotions that so easily rise around difficult issues. THIS PRACTICE TAKES INTENTION AND FOCUS. If we find assertiveness “stiff,” active listening seems even more so. BUT IT PAYS OFF!

Although I teach these skills to pre-marriage couples all the time, I can always use a review and some intentional practice. And especially in difficult or emotionally charged conversations, it’s helpful for me to almost stiffly go through the active listening process. Give it a try! And if you and your significant other would like a tune-up, Prepare-Enrich offers a great one. Just contact me (Pastor Brenda) at 381-1919 (text or call).

Sunday, January 3, 11:00am

All hands on deck! If everybody takes a job, Christmas comes down fast and fun. Let's keep it simple: we'll grab a cuppa coffee and a cookie, then get right to it. Home by noon, easy!

New Member Sunday, January 17

It's been fun seeing new faces and meeting new folks this fall! After personal calls and visits with Pastor Brenda, several households will be joining Faith Lutheran at worship at January 17. If you're interested in membership, please give Pastor Brenda a call (381-1919); she'll meet you at home or over coffee to connect you with Faith's past, present, and future together. We'll also work toward a new member gathering so newbies can get acquainted. ☺

Guest Preacher January 24—

Rev. George Karras, Asst. to the Bishop

Pastor Karras has been making his way around Montana since his appointment to the synod office as Director for Evangelical Mission (funded by the ELCA) in the fall of 2014—and now he's coming our direction! George served as senior Pastor at Pella Lutheran in Sidney for 11 ½ years, and on many synodical leadership groups—AND he's a terrific roaster of coffee beans! (We know from experience!)

George will be available to meet with our leadership about stewardship and/or mission and ministry planning after church.

Lent Study 2016

FAITH LUTHERAN CHURCH

Ready for a fresh look at faith? animate:FAITH is a weekly small group gathering that gives us practice thinking and talking naturally, positively, and comfortably about some spiritual biggies:

1. GOD: Faith is a Quest, Brian McLaren
2. RELIGION: Spirituality Is Not Enough, Lillian Daniel
3. JESUS: The Revolution of Love, Mark Scandrette
4. SALVATION: Abundant Life Now, Shane Hipps
5. CROSS: Where God Is, Nadia Bolz-Weber
6. BIBLE: A Book Like No Other, Lauren Winner

7. CHURCH: An Imperfect Family, Bruce Reyes-Chow

Faith will focus on these topics in worship starting February 7, followed by a small group DVD and discussion with Pastor Brenda from 11-noon. We're looking for several homes and facilitators to host weekly small groups as well. Stay 'social' or dig deep! Materials are simple to use and lead—no expertise required! About 90 minutes is plenty of time per session.

On Sunday, January 17, Pastor Carol Karras will join potential participants and facilitators who want to learn more. Pastor Karras' congregation in Sidney LOVED the study! ~Pastor Brenda & the FLC Council & Mutual Ministry Committee

Lenten Soup Lunches Return Wednesdays, Feb. 10 through Mar. 16

After a hiatus of a couple years, we're bringing our round-robin soup lunches back with new flair. The schedule's yet to be set, but Faith, St. Paul's Episcopal, St. Francis Catholic, First Presbyterian, the United Methodist/American Baptists, and Corvallis United Methodist are planning to host soup luncheons at noon starting on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 10.

Pastors and congregations are considering using animate:Faith as a shared learning opportunity. The re-start is in response to requests for a noon Lenten offering that draws our congregations together. We've missed each other! ☺

Brawl of the Wild

Thanks so much for supporting the special offering on November 15th for Lutheran Campus Ministry! The results are in! Bobcat supporters donated $143 in the blue cups and Grizzly supporters contributed $400, for a total of $543! Even though the Griz won the football game, the FLC challenge and bragging rights for the next year, proceeds will be split evenly between the U of M and MSU Campus Ministries. Better luck next year, Bobcats!

WHATEVER YOU DID FOR ONE OF THE LEAST OF THESE,
YOU DID FOR ME."

Family Promise in Missoula!

For four weeks each year, Missoula Churches share their facilities with families who are homeless and a part of the Family Promise program. Family Promise is a way for us to SHARE THE LOVE OF CHRIST WITH

ALL by caring for families in need. We have extra space, we have extra food and God says in Hebrews 13:15 “Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.”

Family Promise is making a difference! Two families have moved out on their own in the last month and a family member of one of our families got a job! We are the reason these folks can get back on their feet and get into a home of their own.

Mark your calendars for the following Event supporting Family Promise:

- February 27: Immanuel Lutheran’s Scandinavian Smorgasbord (See Below)

Immanuel’s Smorgasbord is back!

On February 27th Immanuel Lutheran in Missoula will again be hosting their Smorgasbord. Lots of planning and preparation goes into making this dinner that serves traditional Scandinavian foods such as lutefisk, lefse and Swedish meatballs.

Faith Lutheran:

Last year, the folks at Immanuel Lutheran decided not to host their annual Scandinavian dinner, and instead hopped the “Lutefisk Bus” to Hamilton to support Faith’s dinner. Let’s return the favor!!

Share the news! Tickets go on sale February 1. Signup on Immanuel’s website to get a reminder! <http://www.imluchurch.org/smorgasbord>

Montana's Christians Consider Refugees

Statement by the Leaders of the Montana Association of Christians

We, the leaders of the Montana Association of Christians (MAC), made up of eight denominations, as well as numerous congregations and individuals across Montana, stand in solidarity with the victims of persecution and violence at home and across the globe. With each new mass shooting or act of terrorism, we too experience anxiety and are tempted to succumb to fear. Yet, grounded by God's peace which passes our understanding, and inspired by the biblical call to love God, and to love our neighbors as ourselves, we recognize in this stressful time a call to courage. Let us not only pray 'thy kingdom come, thy will be done,' let us do it.

We at MAC invite all Montanans, many of us descendants of immigrants ourselves, to welcome those fleeing persecution in other countries, including refugees seeking asylum from Syria. Consider that Joseph and Mary protected Jesus from Herod, by becoming refugees in Egypt. Consider further, the possibility that extending opportunity and hope to those fleeing the brutality and oppression that threaten their lives, might also lay the groundwork for a safer tomorrow. Scripture instructs God's people, who themselves have been sojourners, refugees, and immigrants, to defend, protect, and honor the rights and dignity of the stranger.

We encourage our fellow Montanans to follow the laws and protocols currently in place in our nation and to continue to welcome those fleeing persecution from other countries including Syria. We urge Montanans not to allow fear to degrade our citizenship, but with wisdom and judiciousness to seek a course that upholds the humanity not only of the stranger in our midst, but ultimately ourselves.

Rev. Peter Erickson, ELCA Lutheran Pastor, President of MAC

Rev. Valerie Webster, Episcopal Priest, President (Elect) of MAC

With Gratitude:

Dear Family of Christ: thank you so much for all your help this past year, and just for following God's leading in your life. I can't thank adequately Celeste, Pastor Brenda, and the team that sits down and plans worship months in advance. Just know that just coming to church, acts of kindness, silent prayer, Bible reading, all these types of things are acts of worship. May we reach the point where every step we take is done as an act of Worship. May God Bless you and yours (and remember, He IS blessing us constantly) now and forever.

May God open the windows of heaven, and blessings pour out on you, pressed down and overflowing. Peace of God protect you
