This Christmas: Lots of Presence!

As my visit with Elsie ended, I asked how I could pray. “Well, you could pray for my dad,” she told me. “He has such a hard time.” And so we did. Truth be told, Elsie’s dad passed away decades ago, but her love for him—and his for her—lives on, and I trust God heard that sweet prayer and blessed us both in the praying.

One of the gifts of caring for folks with dementia is the necessity of meeting them where they are—in whatever decade or town or emotional state they inhabit at the moment. Pulling them into here and now is both difficult and painful; best just to find their present and be with them there.

At Christmas, God seeks to find our present and be with us. As I teach Confirmation (WOW! Workshops on Wednesday) with the 15-or-so active families who gather at Faith, I see that cover-to-cover, the Bible tells of The Holy creating and coming near to humanity. God was sad when the man and woman hid in the garden; God sought out Abraham and Moses and Joshua and David and the prophets to be with them and their people; God came as Immanuel (“God with us”) to be human among humans; the risen Christ promises, “I will be with you always to the end of the age;” Paul gathers non-Jews from every corner of the known world to be “in Christ;” and at the end-still-to-come God will “dwell with [humankind]; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes...”

Beginning to End, the point is to be with. God has done everything to be with you now. God aches that we be with him, each other, and creation, releasing the glory and pain of our past and our fears and longings for the future to experience gift of now.

So: Can we let go of our present (whatever expectations, fears, hurts or hopes we hold in this season), and receive the presence of God and of others just as they are? (Hint: this could be a holiday survival skill!) A simple way to practice presence with God and others might be to hit pause, get real for just a moment, ask, “How can I pray for you today?” hear what is said, and pass it on to God without editing or improving it. (God can handle that.)

Most folks, Christian or not, are receptive to prayer. Indeed, prayer is a sweet gift (and no calories! ;o)—a good way to give “lots of presence” this Christmas. And for my part, dear Friends of Faith, I pray that in this season you will deeply experience the presence the God who loves you just as you are and not as you should be! God be with you, ~Pastor Brenda

Why Lutefisk? The Spirit of the Scandinavian Dinner

It's not about the fish! The heart of Faith's Scandinavian Dinner is remembering and rekindling the best of our ancestors' gifts.

They ate Lutefisk because it was plentiful, cheap, and kept forever—and it was peasant food that reminds us of humble roots. They made lefse for the same reasons, along with the cookies we SOOO enjoy: potatoes and wheat, butter and cream were available on the farm and kept farm families warm and smiling.

Faith and its friends come together now to rekindle the humility, the hospitality, the community, the hard work of youngest to oldest that our ancestors brought with them to this mountain valley so like the land they left.

Young and old, new and experienced members are friends: Come! Enjoy and grow the enduring gifts of our past! And invite your friends to join us at the table. ~Pastor Brenda

HIGHLIGHTS FROM FLBC'S ANNUAL MEETING

by Michelle Mendenall

Flathead Lutheran Bible Camp is a little peace of heaven. If you haven't been there, I encourage you to get there. It is primarily recognized by most of us as a summer camp for youth situated on the western shore of Flathead Lake. The amenities are many, and unless you grew up very differently than I did, it is probably not at all what you picture when you remember the summer camps from your youth. When I think of summer camp, I remember crowded cabins with no electricity or plumbing infested with daddy-longleg spiders. It was lots more fun than it sounds, and the spiders were harmless.

This October, Anita Bell and I had the opportunity to serve as delegates for FLBC representing our congregation at the annual meeting. We were guests at the camp for the weekend, and were spoiled with great meals and nights spent in a nice, snug cabin with electricity and a private bathroom, with nary a spider (which was more important than expected given that it rained the whole weekend and I took my entire family promising the kids an "awesome weekend" enjoying the camp). For the delegates, it was a jam-packed itinerary (really- we went until 9:30 in the evening) where we met the enthusiastic staff and passionate board of directors, and learned more about the camp.

One important thing to know is that FLBC is not just for kids. The camp is a place of respite and fun for everyone with year-round programming for all ages. Retreats for skiers, foodies, quilters, beer-brewers, families recovering from the loss of a loved one, harvest festivals, advent celebrations, Bible studies, women's retreats, men's retreats, and special retreats for families are just some of the things on the agenda.

The mission of FLBC is "To experience Christ's grace through meaningful relationships, shared adventures and purposeful service." The core values give great insight to what they are working to accomplish.

Flathead Lutheran Outdoor Ministries boldly proclaims and encounters God's love as we:

- Grow in faith and celebrate life grounded in the Gospel
- Equip one another for lives of faith and service
- Embrace community and build relationships
- Experience awe, adventure and the beauty of creation
- Remain rooted in Lutheran tradition
- Practice Christian hospitality
- Care for the physical and emotional safety of the whole person
- Create purposeful experiences
- Perpetuate financial accessibility for all interested participants
- Promote stewardship of our resources and the care of God's creation

So, while FLBC is a summer camp with all the activities and lakeshore fun you'd expect, it is also a character and faith-building experience. Our kids love (really, really love) Flathead Lutheran Bible Camp. The summer counselors are college students who do an amazing and inspiring job of nurturing our children and helping them along their faith journey. The counselors make Christian-living "cool" in a way that parents rarely can. Our family learned of FLBC when our children attended Vacation Bible School here at Faith. Our kids were so enamored of the VBS counselors, they wanted to go to camp. Their week at FLBC is what helped us choose Faith Lutheran Church as the right church home for our family. So, the camp has a special place in our hearts.

Our church congregation generously gave $2300 in scholarships to make sure that every child in our church who wants to go to camp can. I'm proud our congregation is investing in our young people as they become the future of our church, community and country. It's easy to see the importance of character and faith-building for children, but I challenge you to also acknowledge how important it is for yourself, and most of the adults you know. Go to camp- you'll be hooked. www.flbc.net

Special Announcement:

There will be a special congregational meeting Sunday December 11th immediately following worship. The purpose of this meeting will be to approve FLC's 2017 budget as proposed by council.

This will be the only topic discussed at the meeting.

December Worship Notes

Advent (the beginning of the Christian calendar year) starts Sunday, November 27th. This is the “year of Matthew”, or Lectionary A, where we begin the three year cycle of scripture readings.

Matthew’s gospel is beloved for how it spotlights Jesus as a teacher, gives practical ethical instructions, and includes some of Jesus’ most influential statements, such as the Beatitudes. It is disliked for how harshly Jesus characterized religious leaders and how often he speaks of judgment and hell. Matthew is one of the longest books in the New Testament, and the Sunday readings will cover about 60 percent of this gospel over the course of the year. Matthew was also the first gospel written, and until a century ago, received the most historic attention. Matthew’s gospel alone calls Jesus “Emmanuel”, which means “God with us”.

Worship this month features a variety of blended liturgies and plenty of our favorite Advent songs and Christmas carols. A special treat on December 18th will be the Kids’ Christmas Worship service, a youth-led worship featuring the talents of our young folks. On Christmas Eve, there will be two worship services, which share the Christmas Story told through the scripture readings of Luke and Isaiah with Christmas carols in the traditional candlelight setting. Christmas Day falls on a Sunday this year, and we will worship at 10 am (instead of 9 am)

Please contact me if you are interested in presenting special music at any worship service in December. If you wish to play or sing for Christmas Eve services, I will need to know by December 18th. Operation Christmas Child was a BIG Success!!

Thank you to all who participated in packing boxes for underprivileged children. It is a massive undertaking, and we really needed all hands on deck! A total of 150 boxes were delivered to the local coordination point, from which they will go to Merchant's shipping, then on to the Denver facility to have pamphlets of Bible stories inserted, in the language of their destinations. A BIG Thank You to Linda Beyer and Karen Heller for shopping all year and organizing everything, Judy Wilson and Karen for a wonderful lunch, and to all of you who donated money or merchandise for the boxes. Please say a prayer for the children who will receive the boxes you packed, that they will know the love of God through this gift.

Starting on December 26th the FLC office will be closed for the Holidays.

The office will reopen on January 2nd.

Words From the Bishop - Promote Unity

How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity.

It is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, the beard of Aaron.

It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion.

For there the Lord ordained his blessing, life forevermore.
(Psalm 133)

Election Day is over. And now we move on. No matter how we voted, no matter whether we felt we won or lost, we move on. We move on because that is what democracy is about—we move on.

In the Church, we have an opportunity and an obligation to begin the healing process in our communities, to be a beacon of light for those who are exhausted, embittered and feeling disenfranchised. Regardless of our political convictions, regardless of our strongly held opinions, what holds us together is stronger than what separates us. And as Christians we need to model that for the rest of the country. Read from Colossians 3:

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

We are joined together by our baptism. We are held together by the love of God in Christ Jesus, who gave his life for the sake of the world, the whole world. We are held together by the God who created each one of us in the divine image, and who loves each one of us despite our faults and flaws. We are held together by the Holy Spirit, who works to transcend our pettiness and self-interest. We are held together by being a forgiven, loved and redeemed people—all of us.

And so we move forward. Election Day is over, and we'll have services on Sunday. We'll preach and teach. We'll partake of the sacraments. And we'll do it in communities that have been divided by politics. And we will pray for unity, pray for wisdom, pray for strength. We will feed the hungry, and visit those in prison. And we will reach out to our neighbors. Because that's how we go on.

A Prayer for the Nation in the Book of Common Prayer goes this way:

Lord God Almighty, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and in peace; Give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Jessica Crist, Bishop

In Memoriam

By Clairice Brady

Ellen Schilke left her earthly loved ones and slipped into the arms of Jesus on October 25. The Discovery Care Centre had been her home for the last several years and Ellen will be missed there. Ellen’s space there was a welcoming one, and she enjoyed visiting with old friends and loved making new ones as well. Family was important to Ellen and she found great joy in gathering them together. A niece remembered special birthday celebrations Ellen arranged for her and Michael as they were growing up.

When Ellen was unable to attend church, what might have accumulated in her mail box there was vital to her – she often called and then had her grandson or a neighbor child pick up the mail for her while she waited in the car.

Pastor Brenda talked about her ‘shepherding’ at her memorial service and many folks can attest to having had a bit of Ellen’s care and concern whether they wanted it or not. Ellen will always have a special place in many hearts at Faith.

From the Emergency Assistance Committee:

This has been a very unusual year for your Emergency Assistance Committee. There have only been 5 assists so far this year. The Salvation Army which has served as the clearing house for requests for assistance now has a new coordinator. His name is Fidelis Temukum. The Salvation Army and the Ministerial Association are working on a new system to simplify the assistance process. As soon as a decision has been made you will be informed. Thank you, people of Faith, for your caring and commitment to helping those in need.

Freedom in Christ Prison Ministry brings counsel, worship, and Bible study to inmates and staff at the Montana State Prison in Deerlodge. It's Montana Lutherans' transformative (to inmates and volunteers!) response to Christ's call to visit those in prison.

Freedom in Christ is funded by individuals, congregations, the Montana Synod and the ELCA—and it needs your help! If you have a heart to serve the folks at Deerlodge, connect at www.ficprisonministry.com.

"The Bible makes clear we are to remember and visit those in prison. Evidence shows inmates who participate in faith related programs are much more likely to remain free and become happier, useful members of society. When I participate in an event at the prison I usually come away believing that I have been blessed as much or more than the inmates."

There's Never Been a Day

Chorus: There's never been a day like this day to me,
There's never been a day like this day I see,
There's never been a light that shines so bright
As this day, this glorious day.

We vow here before you, dear Lord of our heart,
To love and to cherish till death do us part,
Our lives bind together, this day and forever.
On this day, this glorious day.

Your God shall be my God, as Ruth said of old.
Our home filled with goodness more precious than gold,
We kneel now before you, awaiting to serve you
On this day, this glorious day.

Dear Father we thank you for your gifts of love;
For food, home and blessings that come from above.
We sing to your glory as we tell the story,
On this day, this glorious day.

It's your golden anniversary, dear Bob and Rachel
Your half century of love inspires us all,
We all thank you and now ask God to bless you
On this day, this glorious day.

There's never been a day like this to us,
There's never been a day like this day for us,
There's never been a light that shines so bright
As this day, this glorious day.

Rev. Rod Kvamme gave Norma Hill the song at an event she attended in the early 70's. Norma introduced it to the congregation. Rachel Gerloff wrote the fourth verse, and for many years it became a theme song for faith and was sung at all events. Rev. Carl Rohr believes Rev. Kvamme wrote the song.

With Gratitude

Thank you Tanin Buhler and BJ's Restaurant for preparing the lovely brunch we enjoyed on Consecration Sunday!

Yummy!

Thank you people of Faith and my wonderful Sunday School Class for all you prayers, cards, flowers, phone calls and words of encouragement that you have sent my way during this pacemaker process. The final process will be done on December 22 and after that I look forward to getting back to "normal." ~ Nancy Osborn

Thank you everyone who attended our 65th anniversary dinner. We collected 227 lbs. of food for Haven House.

The construction of Jennifer Larson, and her family's new Habitat for Humanity home at 511 N. 6th St. continues. Please keep them in our prayers as they continue on with their new journey. While praying for the family, also consider volunteering to help with the construction. You don't have to have experience building a house, but if you do that is fantastic too. There are many opportunities, from cooking, delivering and setting up lunch to pounding nails, painting and caulking. The list goes on. For more information you can go to: www.ravallihabitat.org you can also contact Erin, the volunteer coordinator for Habitat, at 531-4353, 375-1926 or www.volunteerhfhrc@yahoo.com.
