Katy's Gift

It's the most public of news that our 12-year-old Border Collie/Aussie Katy suddenly died in mid-August. Tender thanks to all of you who offered sweet consolation and understanding! I didn't know it would be so hard to lose a pet.

I mean, everyone knows critters have a special place in our hearts. But we don't really know what a pet or a person or an ability really means to us until it's gone, do we? Then, every time we turn around we count another place of gift and loss.

I find myself grateful, though, for a surprising gift of Katy's passing: tears. You see, her death popped my bubble. I mostly held it together through Hannah's graduation and departure for camp, through Ben's appendectomy and subsequent decision to take time away from school, through heavy staff work, through news that things are changing for my folks back in Oregon. I bet you have or have had similar lists!

Finally, as I stroked her soft head for the last time, tears ran—and they're still running—for the passing of pets and parenting, hard days and heavy feelings. I'm grateful that Katy-dog won such a place in my heart that she threw open its gates as she passed through them on her way.

This October holds a couple special opportunities for us at Faith. On Sunday, October 4, we'll celebrate St. Francis of Assisi, patron saint of animals (and ecology) by blessing our pets after worship. Bring your critter (appropriately protected) at 11am for a short, joyful service of blessing. Got recipes for homemade treats or other fun ideas? Bring them along!

Later in the month, All Hallows' Eve (Halloween) and All Saints' Day offer times to remember those who've blessed our lives and moved into eternity. We'll offer thanks and prayers in worship especially for members of our Faith family who've passed on this year and for everyone we'd like to lift up as blessings to our lives. We'll ring bells and light candles and laugh, cry, and sing our grief and our gratitude—the gifts and burdens of being human.

St. Francis wrote many songs and poems; one of them sings: Praise to the death that makes our life real, the knowledge of loss that helps us to feel the gift of yourself...to bring us Home. An ironic gift of our animals is that they open, and enlarge our hearts and make us more human. Thank you, Sweetie.

And yes, Xena Warrior Puppy will be here in time to be blessed. ☺

~Pastor Brenda

Bring Your Pet! Sunday, October 4th 11:00am @ FLC Blessing of the Animals

October 4th is the feast day of Francis of Assisi, patron saint of animals. It has become a traditional time to bless pets and animals, creatures Francis called his brothers and sisters. Please bring your (appropriately protected) critter at 11 for a short service of blessing. Got treat recipes or great ideas? Bring them, too!

We're working to schedule a gathering for parents to voice their questions, hopes and ideas and to plan / volunteer for some great events! Also we'd like to share the results of a short survey the Youth filled out in September telling us about themselves and their relationship with Youth Group.

Help out for HALLOWEEN!!!

St. Paul's will again be hosting a candy and cocoa stop for families on Halloween this year! We ask that each High School youth try to volunteer for at least one hour between 4-9pm. It's a great way for the upperclassmen to get some community service hours for school—and it's HUGE fun to see all the little kids and crazy big ones hit Hamilton's streets! We will have a shift sign-up sheet available at Youth Group. Don't forget your costume!

Judy Larson left us to nestle in the arms of Jesus and we miss her.

We will never forget her. She left us who knew and loved her with memories that we will take out often and always cherish. Judy was a loyal friend and one who looked beyond our frailties to see our hearts.

She knew Jesus and we could see Him through her. Her students loved her and even those who didn't happen to be in her classrooms were inspired by her love for learning. Though she chose not to teach Sunday School, her life was a testimony to all the little minds she encountered. They knew she cared for each of them.

Judy loved social events and planned all kinds of ways to gather friends together. One weekend was hardly finished and she was planning something for the next.

At Faith Judy was the stimulus for the chrismons that decorated our Christmas trees for so many years. She made a second set for her tree at home and just a few years ago gave those to Faith when ours were in dire need of repair.

Charley's Norwegian background was the motivation for her role in Faith's Scandinavian dinners. She co-chaired all those at the Grange, and she is the one who thoughtfully and skillfully drew up the configuration when it was moved to our Church building. She began all the thorough record keeping and made the first Scrapbook. Her 'system' still works today.

In thinking back over our 40+ years as a neighbor, friend and Christian sister, some days I am overwhelmed by memories: Church conventions and ear piercing, our chicken co-op, trips to Flathead to retrieve kids, sports events, church camping, our dinner group, board games, Koinonia, Diakonia, serving together, just knowing she was across the road, and so, so much more.

We continue to miss Judy and we share grief with Charley, Jill and John and their families. Our lives are better for having known her and we thank God for giving her to us to love.

Clairice Brady

Luther 500 Updates

As we prepare for the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation in 2017, Montana pastors organizing our celebration offer their thoughts. Pastor Grant Applehans of Plains reflects:

"I may be a weak goose, but more powerful birds, eagles, and falcons will come after me." These prophetic words were spoken by Jan Hus (whose name means "goose" in Czech), a reformer burned at the stake on July 6, 1415—just over 100 years before Luther put forth many of the same ideas in a way that couldn't be stopped.

Though Hus died, his followers continued the struggle for reformation through many perils and hardships, eventually working in concert with Luther's reformation and becoming the Moravian Church of today. Along the way, these Moravian Christians encountered and influenced many, most notably John Wesley [when he visited] America and saw in their faith a genuine piety that would influence deeply his sense of the living God and the power of pious faith. In deep conversation with Moravian piety, Luther's writings, and his own Anglican tradition, Wesley founded what would become the United Methodist Church of today.

Reformation has always been a team sport in which God speaks to us not only through our own tradition, but also through ongoing conversation with our brothers and sisters throughout the church. As we approach the 500th anniversary of the nailing of the 95 theses, the Luther 500 team invites you to learn more about our brothers and sisters in the Moravian Church, and to consider how God might be calling our church to reformation through the voices of our Christian brothers and sisters.

Words From the Bishop: "Malaria, Be gone!"

Four years ago the ELCA voted to undertake a campaign to raise $15 million to help eradicate malaria. It was a bold move. The country was just coming out of a recession, and the church was just emerging from a stormy couple of years following the decisions on sexuality. There had been talk about doing a joint campaign with Lutheran World Relief and the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. But that fell through. And we voted to go ahead with our own campaign—raise $15 million in under 4 years.

We did it. The word is in, we've achieved the $15 million 3 months ahead of the deadline. Way to go!

Malaria is a disease of poverty. And it is completely preventable, completely curable. You just have to have some education and some very inexpensive bed nets. The ELCA's Malaria Campaign did not completely eradicate malaria from the face of the earth. But it made a huge difference in the lives of those it touched in the thirteen nations where we focused our work. When we started the campaign a child died every 30 seconds from malaria. Now a child dies every 60 seconds. That is still unacceptable. But there is hope. There is a ripple effect from this program that will continue long after we close the books on the ELCA Malaria Campaign.

Thank you for your involvement in this important effort to serve the world, especially the poor and those in need.

In Christ, Jessica Crist, Bishop

P.S. THANKS VBS KIDS (and FLC)! We recently mailed a check to the ELCA Malaria Fund for $650.78, money mostly raised through offering at our Vacation Bible School this summer.
