Greetings Family & Friends of FLC,

I would like to thank you all for your prayers for healing and your support. I fell a week ago Tuesday playing “Pickleball” and broke my kneecap. The swelling has already started to go down and I am walking with just a cane. Again, thank you all for your prayers and support. Today is the Ascension of our Lord. While Jesus was with his disciples, after his resurrection, and right before his ascension he says in Acts 1:8, “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” After saying these words, Jesus was lifted up and out of sight. As were the disciples so we have been left with the Spirit and we are never alone.

The Spirit is with us and intercedes for us as Paul says in Romans when we don’t know how to pray. The Spirit comforts us when we are sad, and we are sad from the news of our dear Brother in Christ Dale Brady.

I also think of all the graduations and graduates and their families and friends. Whether it be from pre-K, kindergarten, 8 th grade, high school, or college etc. In all the decisions that our young people have made and are making, it’s important for them and all of us to know, that even Jesus was ascended bodily he remains alive and with us through the Holy Spirit. The Spirit will calm our fears and give us direction and be with us in the choices we make. And we are witnesses of God’s love to others as the Spirit lives within us.

God’s peace be with you in the days ahead,

Pastor Paul

Reading Thru the Bible in a Year

May 31st, 2 Timothy 1-2 Psalm 122, 1. Where did this passage draw your focus? What memories, thoughts, or feelings did that part stir? 2. Knowing “your place” is as vital as knowing “your people.” Ponder this truth until you gain understanding.

June 1st, 2nd Timothy 3-4: Isaiah 1, 1. If you are an older adult, are you consistently encouraging someone younger? If you’re a young adult, do you have an older person affirming you in our life? Why, or why not? 2. How do you feel about the case God presented? Could he present a similar one today? Why or why not?

Faith Herald June 2021

2nd, Job 1-3: Isaiah 2, 1. How do you approach this question: "What's the point of life when it doesn't make sense?" 2. The world then was "full of hokey religion, Philistine witchcraft, and pagan hocus-pocus, a world rolling in wealth, stuffed with things, no end to its Machines and gadgets." The world today is full of _____, tolling in _____, stuffed with _____, no end to _____ and _____.

June 3rd, Job 4-6: Isaiah 3, 1. If you were to say, "All I want is an answer to one prayer," what would that prayer be? 2. "A city... brought to her knees by her sorrows." What city or place comes to mind, and what loss was experienced?

June 4th, Job 7-9: Isaiah 4, 1. Reading Job's words make you feel _____ and _____. 2. Job speaks of his intense suffering, while Isaiah speaks of the "immense, protective presence" of God. Just sit with that tension for a while; don't try to resolve it.

June 5th, Job 7-9: Isaiah 4, 1. Reading Job's words make you feel _____ and _____. 2. Job speaks of his intense suffering, while Isaiah speaks of the "immense, protective presence" of God. Just sit with that tension for a while; don't try to resolve it.

June 6th, Reflection

June 7th, Job 10-12: Isaiah 5, 1. "Do you think...that you have to grow old before you understand life?" Why or why not? 2. Describe the God of this passage in your own words. June 8th, Job 13-15: Isaiah 6, 1. Who tries to speak into your life who has "been around a lot longer than you"? Are their words wise or just old? 2. When a beloved leader in your life died, what did God show you?

June 9th, Job 16-18: Isaiah 7, 1. What do you relate to in Job's experience? How did God or faith or belief figure into that time or situation? 2. What would you say makes "God tired" these days? Why?

June 10th, Job 19-21: Isaiah 8, 1. When you read the phrase "the wicked have it so good," who comes to mind? What "good" do they have that seems unfair to you? 2. What are some things you're afraid of? Worried about? In what way does this passage speak to your fears and worries?

June 11th, Job 22-24: Isaiah 9, 1. "Everything will turn out just fine." Do you usually find yourself speaking that to others or having it spoken to you? Why do you think that's so? 2. "Amazing Counselor, Strong God, Eternal Father, Prince of Wholeness." Which name speaks most strongly to you this day? Why?

June 12th, Job 25-27: Isaiah 10, 1. Complete this thought: "As long as God breathes life into me, I..." 2. What thoughts and feelings arise in you when you read about this angry God?

June 13th, Reflection

June 14th, Job 28-30: Isaiah 11, 1. Finish this sentence "I expected _____ but _____ showed up." 2. What description in this chapter excites you the most? Why?

June 15th, Job 31-33: Isaiah 12, 1. Elihu states that "God's Spirit in a person... makes wise human insight possible." Do you agree? Why or why not? 2. Examples of God being "strength" are not hard to find; however, God being "song" are a little more rare. How has God been your song?

June 16th, Job 34-36: Isaiah 13, 1. "God's not dependent on your behavior." This statement is the headline in your local newspaper. You were assigned to write the story. What does your first line say? 2. What troubled you most as "watched" God's Judgment Day? Talk to God about it.

June 17th, Job 37-39: Isaiah 14, 1. Read the passage again, this time imagining yourself as Job, being answered "from the eye of a violent storm." Describe what you're feeling. 2. Do you give yourself time to recover after trouble or abuse comes your way, or do you jump right back on the horse? Why?

June 18th, Job 40-42: Isaiah 15, 1. What about God have you "lived by rumors" that you now have firsthand? 2. Imagine yourself as a field reporter in the midst of these refugees. What do you hear when you interview them?

June 19th, Titus: Isaiah 16, 1. Does the word "big hearted" come to mind when you think of God's people? Why or why not? 2. If you were given the task of establishing a "new government of love," what would be your priorities?

June 20th, Reflection

Faith Lutheran Church is a family of God built on love: Worshiping, welcoming, and serving in Christ's name.

Faith Herald June 2021

June 21st, Jeremiah 1-3: Isaiah 17, 1. The word whore doesn't show up much in conversation, let alone reading. What is your response to it in these chapters? 2. How do you determine the authority of something religious?

June 22nd, Jeremiah 4-6: Isaiah 18, 1. If God asked, "What's happened in this country?" how would you respond? 2. What do you sense has been "pruned" in your life over the last few years? How did it happen?

June 23rd, Jeremiah 7-9: Isaiah 19, 1. What is your opinion of people who get embarrassed or blush easily? Are you one of those people? 2. What do you see in your mind when you think of God as "God-of-the-Angel-Armies"? Is this a new way for you to think about him?

June 24th, Jeremiah 10-12: Isaiah 20, 1. Do you usually have your wits about you in times of calm? What about when "troubles break loose"? How would your friends answer these questions about you? 2. Imagine that you are Isaiah and God has just told you to walk around "naked and bare-footed for three years." What are your initial thoughts?

June 25th, Jeremiah 13-15: Isaiah 21, 1. What would you think if God told you, "Don't pray that everything will turn out all right" for an individual or group of people? 2. Finish this thought: "I had hoped for a relaxing evening, but..."

June 26th, Jeremiah 16-18: Isaiah 22, 1. What would you say if someone asked you, "who is God and what does he do?" 2. "Seize the day! Eat and drink! Tomorrow we die!" These were some prominent slogans then. What slogans or phrases does the world live by today? Come up with as many as you can.

June 27th, Reflection

June 28th, Jeremiah 19-21: Isaiah 23, 1. What in you is like "fire in [your] belly, a burning in [your] bones"? 2. Recall something in your life that once was "energetic and alive" but now is "destruction" and turmoil." What happened?

June 29th, Jeremiah 22-24, Isaiah 24, 1. Let this question permeate all you experience today—"How do we understand God in this? 2. Bring to mind the face of someone who never sees anything but "doom, doom, and more doom." How do you respond to that person? Why?

June 30th, Jeremiah 25-27, Isaiah 25, 1. If the Spirit of Jeremiah inhabited someone living today, who would that be? What makes you say so? 2. "A feast of the finest foods, a feast with vintage wines, a feast of seven courses, a feast lavish with gourmet desserts." What foods, wines, and desserts, do you see here?

July 1st, Jeremiah 28-30, Isaiah 26, 1. Fill in the blank: "Yes, when you get serious about finding me and want it more than _____, I'll make sure you won't be disappointed." Do you believe God? Why or why not? Talk to him about it. 2. If God audibly spoke to you and said, "Keep at it and don't quit," what would he be talking about?

July 2nd, Jeremiah 31-33, Isaiah 27, 1. Tell god what has been lost in your life that you would love for him to restore. 2. When you imagine God as the keeper of a vineyard, what words or images come to mind?

July 3rd, Jeremiah 34-36, Isaiah 28, 1. "Settle down and be faithful." What names and faces do you hear and see when you read this statement? 2. Do you have good life insurance? Are all your bases covered? Have you thought of everything? Are you set?

Some wisdom from the Bishop re: recent CDC Guidelines

Many of you have no doubt heard about the confusing guidelines that came last week from the CDC regarding mask wearing, social distancing and other activities that affect our worship spaces and practices. Communities, counties, states and organizations are also attempting to issue guidelines based on the CDC guidelines which seems only to be making things more confusing.

In light of this confusion, I will make no attempt to issue yet another set of guidelines as the congregations in the MT/NWY Synod continue to discern new and familiar ways to be church together as you emerge from pandemic related realities in your settings. Instead, I will offer the following:

- In whatever you decide and whatever you do, love one another.
- In whatever you decide and do, be wise, careful and ready to return to the safety-centered previous practices should Covid-19 numbers begin to rise again in your context.
- Keep an eye on the number of active cases in your area and listen to your health professionals, making decisions accordingly.
- Do not judge one another for the choices others are making or put stumbling blocks in the way of others in their faith. (cf. Rm 14:13ff)
- Instead lift one another up in mutual respect and “please your neighbor for the good purpose of building up your neighbor.” (cf. all of Romans 14-15)
- Congregation councils and pastoral leaders, take a deep breath of fresh air outside, let it out slowly, and then continue to work together to make decisions for the common good of your congregation and your surrounding communities.

Finally, in all that you do, think and say, remember and live out the verses from Galatians I've quoted often during this time of pandemic, "For you were called to freedom, siblings in Christ; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence but through love become servants to one another." (Gal 5:13)

Your (just as confused) sibling in Christ, Bishop Laurie
