Faith Lutheran Church is a family of God built on love: worshipping, welcoming, and serving in Christ's name. We are a Christ centered, Bible reading, welcoming spiritual home for seekers, believers, and everyone between. We are a family of God "because God first loved us" (1John 4:19) Because you are here, you are part of the Family. WELCOME!

If you are new, visiting or curious, please get in touch with us. Leave your contact information with the office or the cards in the pews.

Lent

Lent is part of the Church year that incorporates a 40 day season beginning on Ash Wednesday and concludes at the Great Vigil of Easter. Sundays are not included in the 40-days because every Sunday is a joyful celebration of Jesus' resurrection.

Journeying through the 40 days, may we learn new humility before God, remembering "Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner".

"Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. "

~ Romans 5:1-2

What is a Lutheran?

Lutherans believe in the Triune God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that God's Son, Jesus Christ, transforms lives through his death on the cross and his resurrection, and we trust that God's Spirit is active in the world.

We believe that there is nothing we can do to earn God's grace and our salvation, but that it is a gift of God, freely given to us through Jesus Christ. Our response to this gift is one of love, not obligation. We seek to do God's will out of love for what God has already done for us, and to share that Good News with others.

Prelude
Call to Worship

Gathering

Welcome

P: The Peace of the Lord be with you all

C: And also with you.

Brief Order of Confession
Please stand if you are able

P: Returning again to the waters of our baptism, we begin in the name of the Father, Son + and the Holy Spirit.

P: Let us confess our sin before God and in the presence of one another

Silence is maintained for reflection and self-examination

P: Gracious and Merciful God,

C: We confess to you the truth of our broken lives. We have not trusted your promises or walked in your ways. We have hoarded and squandered the gifts of your Creation. We have failed to welcome the stranger and the outcast, or make room for the hungry. We have neither worked to release the oppressed nor admitted our own captivities. Forgive our sin, heal our lives, and set us free that we might live with your whole creation in the justice and joy of your promised future.

P: God who is merciful and kind, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, hears the cries of all who plead for mercy and, in these last days, has sent Christ Jesus to announce the Good News of forgiveness and release to all who are bound by guilt, or broken by shame, that they might praise God and serve the world with glad and generous hearts.

For Freedom, Christ has set you free

C: Thanks be to God.

We call our form of worship liturgical from the Greek word "leitourgia" which means work of the people

*We begin with confession knowing that in confession we find a God who is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
(Numbers 14:18)*

Kyrie

The Kyrie is the Greek word for, 'O Lord'. The biblical roots of the Kyrie are found in 1 Chronicles 16:34 and informs our prayer both as a petition and a prayer of thanksgiving; an acknowledgment of what God has done, what God is doing, and what God will continue to do.

A In peace, let us pray to the Lord:

C Lord, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy.

When we gather to worship God, we do not just say 'Hello' to one another, but wish one another God's favor. We do this when we take part in the greeting, "The Lord be with you. And also with you."

In the Prayer of the Day the main thoughts of the day are collected and summarized in this short prayer.

We hear three readings. The first is from the Old Testament

The Psalm, while part of the Old Testament, gives us language of prayer, poetry and praise of God.

The second reading often comes from a New Testament letter.

Hymn of the Day see insert

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith.”
~ Romans 1:16

The Gospel occupies the last place, the place of honor, among the readings of the day, because it tells us of Jesus’ life, ministry.

A sermon or homily is shared to help the worshippers relate the lessons to today.

We respond to God's Word together when we confess our faith by saying one of the three creeds of the church.

Grounded in the Word and Promise of God we pray for the needs of the world, the whole church, and our community.

Apostles' Creed

A: Let us confess together the faith of the Church, using the words of the Apostles' Creed.

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Each portion of the prayers concludes with

A: Merciful God,

C: Receive our prayer

The prayers conclude with these or similar words

P: Accept the prayers we bring, oh God, on behalf of a world in need, for the sake of Jesus Christ.

C: Amen.

Please Return this Booklet after worship.

MEAL

Peace

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: And also with you.

The ministers and congregation may greet one another with a gesture of peace, using these or similar words

Sit

Presentation of the Gifts

The offering is received & a special offering of music is presented

Offering "Come, let us bring"

Each line is sung twice

Come, let us bring the warm and fragrant bread, Broken here so all God's people might be fed,
Come, let us bring the sweet abundant wine,
In this cup we taste the joy of grace divine,
Praise be to you who set all people free,
Blest are they who share the feast of jubilee.

Offering Prayer

After the gifts have been presented, an offertory prayer is said.

A: Let us pray.

Extravagant God,

C: you have blessed us with fullness of creation.

Now we gather at your feast where you offer us the food that satisfies. Take and use what we offer here, come among us, and feed us with the body and blood of Christ, in whose name we pray.

Amen

The exchange of peace is a traditional Christian greeting that comes from what once was called the "holy kiss"; which appears in scriptures five times in the New Testament.

Our offering is another response to God's Word. We give of ourselves, and our money out of thankfulness for all that God has given us, our life and our salvation.

*Holy Communion is also called the 'Eucharist', which is ancient Greek for 'thanksgiving'
The Eucharist is at the very heart of the Church's life.*

The Great Thanksgiving

P The Lord be with you. C And al - so with you.

P Lift up your hearts. C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The minister continues with the proper preface

It is indeed right and good ...

We praise your name and join their unending hymn

C Ho-ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord,

God of power and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san-na, ho - san-na, ho - san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he, bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san-na, ho - san-na, ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Marty Haugen; © 2000, GIA Publications, Inc.

P: Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

C: Amen

Here the Words of Institution recalls the act which was commanded by Jesus at the last supper with his disciples, 1 Cor. 11:23-26

The Lord's Prayer is the prayer Jesus taught his disciples when they wanted to know how to pray; found in Matthew 6:9-13, it is the special prayer of God's family.

Our meal being ended, we continue giving thanks, knowing that God's grace given to us sends us out to help us witness to the love of God in Christ.

The Benediction is a blessing placed upon the congregation as they are sent out into the world to do the work of the people of God.

P: Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen.

Invitation to Communion

P: Here is food and drink for the journey. Take and be filled.

Distribution (the elements are shared as directed)

Post Communion Blessing

P: May the body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ strengthen and keep you in his grace.

Post-Communion Prayer

P: Let us pray

C: Merciful God, accompany our journey through these forty days. Renew us in the gift of baptism, that we may provide for those who are poor, pray for those in need, fast from self-indulgence, and above all that we may find our treasure in the life of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

Sending

Benediction
